

COLORADO EAST BAHÁ'Í

WINTER SCHOOL 2019

Living Up to Our Spiritual Reality Raising Consciousness in Race Relations

January 4-6, 2019

“Freedom from racial prejudice, in any of its forms, should... be adopted as the watchword of the entire body of the American believers ... It should be consistently demonstrated in every phase of their activity and life ... It should be deliberately cultivated through the various and everyday opportunities, no matter how insignificant, that present themselves”

-- From Shoghi Effendi in The Advent of Divine Justice

This school will be a celebratory sharing of experiences, reflections and learning as we focus on raising consciousness of our interactions with others, whether similar or different from ourselves. We will be studying recent guidance and connecting to the third prerequisite of success, the Elimination of Prejudice, described by Shoghi Effendi in The Advent of Divine Justice.

Come join us for a weekend of devotions, conversations, deepening, and fellowship. A special invitation goes out to youth, junior youth, children and their families!

Registration begins at 4:30 pm on Friday night followed by dinner. The program will begin at 7:00 pm.

Programs created for adults, youth, junior youth & children. Nursery & parent space for theme related discussions.
